NARRATIVE:

Nicholas Ziglio has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 21. His convictions include felon in possession of a firearm, elder abuse, domestic violence after battery, multiple cases of possession of controlled substances for sale, petty theft, battery, contempt of court, petty theft and under the influence of controlled substances. He has served multiple prison terms, the longest being a 3 year term for domestic violence with injury. Ziglio was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on May 24th 2017. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in August 2020 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Ziglio qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for felon in possession of a firearm is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
